Cancellation And Mutual Release Agreement

Who should use this form?

This form should be used by the agent wishing to terminate the sales agreement on behalf of their client.

What is the purpose of this form?

The purpose of this form is to notify all parties of the termination and release of all interest in an existing contract and it specifies how the earnest money will be divided and dispersed.

When is this form used?

This form should be used when a contract is terminated.