Counter Offer Addendum

Who should use this form?
This form can be used by either agent.

What is the purpose of this form?
The purpose of this form is to make modifications to an offer during negotiations.

When is this form used?
This form should be used during negotiations. And should NOT be signed if not completely accepted by client. If more than one change is necessary then a new form should be created.