New Homes Allowances Addendum

Who should use form?
The agent assisting the builder.

What is the purpose of this form?
To inform the buyer of the allowances that are included in the contract for the new home they are about to build.

When is form used?
The form should be used before the contract is written to inform all parties of the allowances that are included in the contract.