Occupyancy After Closing Amendment

Who should use this form?

The Agent/Broker representing the Seller(s) of the property.

What is the purpose of this form?

The purpose of this form is to allow the Seller(s) to remain in possession of the property, after closing. To outline and agree to the terms and compensation to be paid to the Buyer(s).

When is this form used?

This form is to be used, prior to closing, to amend the current contract possession clause.