- e. Allow BROKER to accept a deposit to be applied against the Purchase Price and to place that deposit into the escrow account maintained by BROKER or other escrow agent until the Closing of the sale of the Property. If the deposit is forfeited by the Buyer, _____% (zero (0) if left blank) of the deposit shall be retained by BROKER, provided, however, that the amount retained shall not exceed the amount to which BROKER would be entitled as a commission if the transaction had been consummated, and the balance of the deposit shall be paid to SELLER.

  - 1. Accept delivery of and present to SELLER all offers and counteroffers to sell Property;
  - 2. Assist SELLER in developing, communicating, negotiating, and presenting offers, counteroffers, and notices that relate to the offers and the counteroffers until a purchase agreement is signed and all contingencies are satisfied or waived; and
  - 3. Answer SELLER'S questions relating to the offers, counteroffers, notices, and contingencies.
- e. Disclose to SELLER all adverse material facts actually known (or should have known, in Missouri) by BROKER about Buyer.
- f. Disclose to SELLER any facts known by BROKER which are omitted from or contradict any information included in a written report prepared by a qualified third party.
- g. Comply with all applicable federal, state, and local laws, rules and regulations, and ordinances, including fair housing and civil rights statutes and rules and regulations.
- h. Keep all information about SELLER confidential unless: disclosure is authorized under this Contract; disclosure is required by statute, rule or regulation; failure to disclose would constitute a fraudulent misrepresentation; or disclosure is necessary under applicable law to defend the affiliated licensee against an action of wrongful conduct in an administrative or judicial proceeding or before a professional committee.

115	i. Disclose to all prospective Buyers all adverse material facts actually known by the Transaction Broker,
116	including but not limited to:

128	MUST be presented regardless of whether the Property is subject to a sales contract.
129
130	4. BROKER'S AUTHORIZATION TO DISCLOSE. Broker is required to disclose certain terms and details of a

143
144	5. SELLER'S DISCLOSURE AND CONDITION OF PROPERTY ADDENDUM ("Seller's Disclosure"). SELLER
145	understands that the law requires disclosure of any material defects in the Property to prospective Buyers and that
146	failure to do so may result in civil liability for damages. SELLER agrees to complete the Seller's Disclosure
147	Statement to be provided to prospective Buyers and to update the disclosure statement at the request of
148	BROKER, or in the event of a material change in the condition of the Property. SELLER will provide all

- 8. BROKERAGE RELATIONSHIP DISCLOSURE. SELLER acknowledges receiving (a) the Broker Disclosure Form (in Missouri) on or before the signing of the Seller's Agency Agreement, or upon the licensee obtaining any personal or financial information, whichever occurs first; OR, (b) the Real Estate Brokerage Relationships Brochure (in Kansas) at the first practical opportunity. The Missouri "Form", or Kansas "Brochure" needs to be read by all consumers. SELLER understands and agrees that BROKER can show the Property and obtain offers from all prospective Buyers, including Buyers with whom BROKER has a brokerage relationship. BROKER shall notify SELLER and Buyer of BROKER'S intention to represent both of them (Disclosed Dual Agency is available only in Missouri), to represent neither but to assist both the Buyer and SELLER (Transaction Brokerage is available in both Kansas and Missouri), or designate an agent for the Buyer and another to represent SELLER (Designated Agency is available in both Kansas and Missouri). SELLER also understands and agrees that as part of the marketing of the Property, BROKER will be showing Buyers properties other than the Property and providing Buyers with information on selling prices in the area. SELLER understands that BROKER may show alternative properties not owned by SELLER to prospects and may list competing properties for sale without breaching any duty or obligation to SELLER.
  - Seller Agency. A SELLER'S agent represents SELLER only, so the Buyer may be either unrepresented or represented by another agent. The SELLER'S agent is responsible for performing the following duties: promoting the interests of SELLER with the utmost good faith, loyalty, and fidelity; protecting SELLER'S confidences, unless disclosure is required; presenting all offers in a timely manner; advising SELLER to obtain expert advice; accounting for all money and property received; disclosing to SELLER all adverse material facts about the Buyer that the agent knows; environmental hazards affecting the property that are required to be disclosed; the physical condition of the property; any material defects in the property or in the title to the property; any material limitation on SELLER'S ability to complete the contract. The SELLER'S agent has no duty to: conduct an independent inspection of the property for the benefit of the Buyer; independently verify the accuracy or completeness of any statement by SELLER or any qualified third party.
  - Transaction Broker. (Kansas and Missouri). SELLER acknowledges that BROKER may have Buyer clients who have retained BROKER to represent them in the acquisition of property. If one of these clients becomes interested in making an offer on the Property, BROKER would be in the position of representing the Buyer and SELLER in the same transaction. Unless designated agents have been appointed as provided below, this representation would constitute a dual agency (Missouri only). With the informed consent of both SELLER and the Buyer, BROKER may act as a Transaction Broker. As a Transaction Broker, BROKER would assist the parties with the real estate transaction without being an agent or advocate for the interests of either party. A Transaction Broker has the duty to perform the terms of any written or oral agreement made with any party to the transaction; to exercise reasonable skill, care and diligence as a Transaction Broker, including but not limited to: presenting all offers and counteroffers in a timely manner regardless of whether the Property is subject to a Contract for sale or lease or a letter of intent; keeping the parties fully informed regarding the transaction and suggesting that such parties obtain expert advice as to material matters about which the Transaction Broker knows but the specifics of which are beyond the expertise of such broker; accounting in a timely manner for all money and property received; disclosing to each party to the transaction any adverse material facts of which the Transaction Broker has actual notice or knowledge; and assisting the parties in complying with the terms and conditions of any Contract. The parties to a transaction brokerage transaction shall not be liable for any acts of the Transaction Broker. The following information shall not be disclosed by a Transaction Broker without the informed consent of the party or parties disclosing such information to the BROKER: that a Buyer is willing to pay more than the Purchase Price offered for the Property; that SELLER is willing to accept less than the asking price for the Property; what the motivating factors are for any party buying, selling or leasing the property; that SELLER or a Buyer will agree to financing terms other than those offered; any confidential information about the other party, unless disclosure of such information is required by law, statute, rules or regulations or failure to disclose such information would constitute fraud or dishonest dealing. (A separate Transaction Broker Amendment must be signed by all parties when this arrangement is used.)
  - Subagency. A Subagent is the agent of an agent. A Subagent owes the same obligations and responsibilities as the agent.

- Disclosed Dual Agency. (Missouri only) BROKER may have Buyer clients who have retained BROKER to represent them in connection with the acquisition of property. If a Buyer represented by BROKER becomes interested in making an offer on the Property, BROKER is in the position of representing both SELLER and the Buyer in that transaction. This representation, known as dual agency, can create inherent conflicts of interest. The same is true if the listing agent is also the selling agent. A Dual Agent shall be a limited agent for both SELLER and a Buyer and shall have the duties of SELLER'S or a Buyer's agent except that a Dual Agent may disclose any information to one client that the licensee gains from the other client if the information: (1) is material to the transaction unless it is confidential information that has not been made public or, (2) becomes public by the words or conduct of the client to whom the information pertains or; (3) is obtained from a source other than the licensee. A Dual Agent may not disclose, without the consent of the client to whom the information pertains: that a Buyer is willing to pay more than the Purchase Price offered for the property; that SELLER is willing to accept less than the asking price for the Property; what the motivating factors are for any client, buying or selling the Property; that a client will agree to financing terms other than those offered and/or the terms of any prior offers or counteroffers made by any party. A Dual Agent shall not disclose to one client any confidential information about the other client unless the disclosure is required by statute, rule or regulation or failure to disclose the information would constitute a misrepresentation or unless disclosure is necessary to defend the affiliate licensee against an action of wrongful conduct in any administrative or judicial proceeding or before a professional committee. A separate Disclosed Dual Agency Amendment must be signed by SELLER and the Buyer when this form of agency is used.
- Designated Agency. A Designated Agent is a licensee affiliated with BROKER who has been designated by BROKER, or BROKER'S authorized representative, to act as the agent of a Buyer represented by BROKER or a SELLER represented by BROKER to the exclusion of all other affiliated licensees of BROKER. The use of a Designated Agent is an alternative to a Disclosed Dual Agency in Missouri or a Transaction Broker in Kansas or Missouri. A Designated Seller's Agent will perform all of the duties of a Seller's Agent.

If a Designated Agent is appointed to represent SELLER, SELLER understands and agrees that:

- 1. The Designated Agent will perform all of the duties of a Seller's Agent and will be SELLER'S legal agent to the exclusion of all other licensees affiliated with BROKER.
- 2. Another licensee with the BROKER may act as a Designated Agent for a Buyer in the sale of the Property.
- 3. The supervising broker (or branch broker, if applicable) will act as a Transaction Broker and will not advocate for the interests of either party and will not, without prior consent of both parties, disclose any information or personal confidences about a party which might place the other party at an advantage. The supervising broker (or branch broker, if applicable) may appoint an affiliated licensee to act in the transaction as a Transaction Broker.
- 4. If the Designated Agent for SELLER is also the Designated Agent of a Buyer who is interested in purchasing the Property, the Designated Agent cannot represent both SELLER and Buyer. With the informed consent of both SELLER and Buyer, the Designated Agent may act as a Transaction Broker and assist the parties with the real estate transaction without being an agent or advocate for the interests of either party.
- 5. If a Buyer who is represented by a Designated Agent of BROKER wants to see a property which was personally listed by the supervising broker, the supervising broker, with the written consent of SELLER, may specifically designate an affiliated licensee who will act as the Designated Agent for SELLER.
- 9. BROKERAGE RELATIONSHIPS CONFIRMATION. Unless otherwise provided herein, the SELLER authorizes the designated broker to cooperate with and compensate other designated brokers.
